Marlborough Court, Lowestoft

Oulton (NR32) is a well-established suburban area to the west of Lowestoft in the county of Suffolk. The area is best known for its proximity to Oulton Broad, a picturesque stretch of water forming part of The Broads National Park. Popular for boating and waterside walks, the Broad provides a scenic backdrop and a strong leisure focus for residents and visitors alike. Oulton offers a mix of residential neighbourhoods, local shops and schools, while benefitting from good transport connections, including Oulton Broad railway stations with links to Norwich and wider regional destinations. With convenient access to both countryside and coast, Oulton NR32 combines a relaxed waterside setting with the amenities of nearby Lowestoft town centre.
