DESCRIPTION

Occupying an enviable position on the edge of a small and highly regarded development within the sought-after coastal village of Reydon, this attractive detached family home combines traditional styling with comfortable modern living. Constructed with brick-faced elevations beneath pitched and hipped pantile roofs, the property enjoys a distinctive appearance enhanced by elegant sash-style double-glazed windows and a private walled garden.

The well-presented accommodation benefits from gas-fired central heating and is arranged around a welcoming entrance hall with staircase rising to the first floor and useful storage beneath. The spacious dual-aspect kitchen/dining room is fitted with an extensive range of cupboards and drawers complemented by woodblock work surfaces, creating a practical and sociable space for everyday living. A side door provides convenient access to the passageway connecting the house to the garage, while a utility/cloakroom add further practicality.

The generous dual-aspect sitting room is filled with natural light and enjoys direct access to the garden through glazed casement doors, creating an ideal space for both relaxation and entertaining.

On the first floor, the landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms together with a modern wet room, offering comfortable accommodation for families, guests or those seeking a coastal retreat.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a substantial double garage that provides excellent storage and incorporates a useful office/workshop space, ideal for home working, hobbies or additional flexibility. The enclosed walled garden offers a high degree of privacy and is predominantly laid to lawn, complemented by established shrubs and planting, creating a peaceful and attractive outdoor setting.

Situated close to the amenities of Reydon and within easy reach of the renowned coastal town of Southwold, this appealing home presents an excellent opportunity to enjoy village living within one of Suffolk's most desirable coastal locations.
