DESCRIPTION

This stunning 16th-century three-bedroom detached thatched cottage exudes timeless character and charm, set within a substantial plot that boasts beautifully landscaped gardens, mature trees, and breath-taking panoramic views. The property features a detached double garage with a studio above flooded with natural light from Velux windows, plus an additional outbuilding providing extra storage or utility space. Inside, the home blends traditional features such as open fireplaces and exposed beams with well-proportioned living spaces, including a dual-aspect dining room with a wood-burning stove and a cosy sitting room. Upstairs, the bedrooms are spacious and bright, complemented by a charming bathroom with views over the surrounding gardens. Outside, a shingled driveway offers ample off-road parking, completing a picturesque and inviting countryside retreat

LIVING AREAS

The living areas of this enchanting thatched cottage are filled with period charm and warmth, offering inviting spaces ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. The dual-aspect dining room features a characterful wood-burning stove, creating a cosy ambiance that enhances its traditional appeal, while natural light floods the space through windows on two sides. Across the hallway, the dual-aspect sitting room offers another light-filled retreat, centred around a striking open fireplace that adds both charm and comfort. Both rooms showcase the cottage's historic character, with exposed beams and original details contributing to the property's timeless atmosphere, making the living areas as practical as they are picturesque

KITCHEN

The kitchen is thoughtfully positioned to make the most of its picturesque surroundings, offering beautiful views over the garden. Its layout is functional and charming, with direct access to the downstairs cloakroom and outdoor areas, making it both convenient and connected to the flow of the home. The kitchen retains a cosy, cottage-style atmosphere that aligns with the character of the property, and its placement ensures it remains bright and welcoming throughout the day

BEDROOMS

The bedrooms in this characterful cottage are full of charm and offer a peaceful retreat with lovely views. The principal bedroom is a generous double, featuring a decorative fireplace and a built-in storage cupboard, adding both warmth and practicality. The second bedroom is also a spacious double, while the third is a large single or comfortable small double, making it versatile for use as a bedroom, guest room, or home office. Each room benefits from the home's elevated position, with windows that frame the surrounding countryside and garden, enhancing the tranquil and inviting atmosphere throughout the upper floor.

BATHROOM

The bathroom is a delightful space that perfectly complements the cottage's character, offering both charm and functionality. A standout feature is the window positioned above the bath, allowing you to enjoy beautiful views while soaking, filling the room with natural light and a sense of calm. The bathroom is well-appointed with a toilet, bidet, and basin, all thoughtfully arranged to make the most of the space. Its serene atmosphere and connection to the surrounding landscape create a relaxing and inviting environment, ideal for unwinding at the end of the day.

OUTSIDE & OUTBUILDINGS

The outside areas of this picturesque 16th-century cottage are as impressive as the home itself, offering a generous and beautifully maintained setting that enhances the property's charm. The landscaped gardens wrap around the front, side, and rear of the house, predominantly laid to lawn and bordered by mature trees, shrubs, and colourful planting that provide year-round interest and privacy. A shingled driveway offers ample off-road parking and leads to a detached double garage, which includes a convenient shower room and an upper-level studio with Velux windows framing stunning views. Additionally, there is a further outbuilding ideal for extra storage or housing appliances. The outdoor space is perfect for those who enjoy gardening, entertaining, or simply soaking in the peaceful countryside surroundings
