DESCRIPTION

Originally built in the late 19th century and extended in 1898, The Old Methodist Chapel in Westhall has been beautifully converted into a five-bedroom detached home that blends original character with modern comfort. The property features a large entrance hall with a striking galleried landing, leading to generous living spaces including a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and entertaining area created by a substantial side extension, along with a living room, sitting room, utility room, and downstairs office. Upstairs are five well-proportioned bedrooms, two with ensembles – including a principal suite with a dressing room – and a stylish family bathroom. Full of period charm, the home sits within a substantial enclosed rear garden, offering privacy and space in a peaceful Suffolk village setting.

LIVING AREAS

The living areas of The Old Methodist Chapel showcase the building's heritage and warmth, offering two inviting spaces designed for both relaxation and entertaining. The living room exudes character with its generous proportions, large windows that flood the space with natural light, and subtle reminders of the chapel's 19th-century origins. Adjacent to this, the sitting room provides a more intimate retreat, perfect for quiet evenings or family gatherings, blending period charm with comfortable, contemporary finishes. Together, these rooms create a versatile and welcoming heart to the home, balancing the chapel's historic atmosphere with modern, everyday living.

KITCHEN/DINER

The kitchen and dining area form the vibrant heart of The Old Methodist Chapel, set within the impressive modern extension that seamlessly blends with the property's historic character. This open-plan space is filled with bohemian charm, combining rustic textures and contemporary finishes to create a relaxed yet stylish atmosphere. The fully equipped kitchen offers ample storage and workspace, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining, while the dining area flows effortlessly to the outdoors through bi-folding doors that open onto the enclosed rear garden. Bathed in natural light and designed for social living, this is a truly inviting space where the home's creative personality shines.

BEDROOMS

The bedrooms at The Old Methodist Chapel are generously proportioned and continue the home's blend of character and comfort. The principal suite is a luxurious retreat, complete with a dressing room and a private ensuite bathroom, offering both style and privacy. Two further bedrooms also benefit from ensembles, while the remaining bedrooms are well-sized and flexible, perfect for family, guests, or a home office. All rooms are bright and airy, with subtle nods to the property's 19th-century origins, creating a harmonious balance of period charm and modern convenience throughout the first floor.

BATHROOMS

The bathrooms in The Old Methodist Chapel are thoughtfully designed to complement the home's blend of period character and contemporary comfort. The principal and one additional ensembles offer modern fixtures and elegant finishes, providing private, stylish retreats for the bedrooms they serve. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the first floor, featuring quality fittings and a light, airy atmosphere. Each bathroom balances practicality with a sense of calm, reflecting the home's overall charm while meeting the needs of modern family living.

OUTSIDE

The rear garden of The Old Methodist Chapel is a substantial and fully enclosed outdoor space, offering both privacy and versatility. Accessible via bi-folding doors from the open-plan kitchen and dining area, it provides a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living, ideal for entertaining, family life, or quiet relaxation. The garden's generous proportions allow for multiple seating or play areas, while its sheltered setting ensures a peaceful retreat that complements the character and charm of this unique former chapel.
