Low Road, Friston

An immaculately presented individual detached bungalow set in beautiful private gardens.

Friston is located in the heart of Suffolk's Heritage Coast and benefits from a popular public house The Chequers. Friston is approximately four miles from the popular seaside town of Aldeburgh which has a lively High Street full of both independent and national shops and eateries supported by an active and engaged local community as well as a thriving tourist trade. The nearby towns of Leiston and Saxmundham provide further High Street shopping and supermarkets, the latter of these towns contains a branch railway station that with a change at Ipswich provides a route to London Liverpool Street.

Council Tax Band: D

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully presented bungalow is in immaculate condition, having been significantly enhanced by the current owners. It offers generous and thoughtfully arranged accommodation, beginning with a spacious entrance porch that provides direct access to the large garage/workshop.

The welcoming entrance hall includes excellent built-in storage and leads to a stylish, well-appointed kitchen, as well as a lovely L-shaped, dual-aspect lounge/dining room that enjoys views over the gardens. An inner hallway connects to three spacious bedrooms, two of which benefit from fitted wardrobes, while a smart and contemporary family bathroom completes the interior.

The bungalow sits within a generous plot, well set back from the road. A driveway offers ample off-road parking and access to the oversized garage, which features a utility area, workshop space, and access to the rear garden.

The gardens are a particular highlight. Enclosed by a mature screening hedgerow, the grounds wrap around the front and side with expansive lawns and an array of established shrubs, opening into a beautifully landscaped rear garden. A wide paved patio, bordered by a shingle-topped retaining wall planted with ornamental grasses, sets the tone for a series of gently terraced levels. These are interspersed with abundant planting, block-paved and sleeper-edged pathways, and multiple seating areas positioned to make the most of the tranquil surroundings. Additional features include a charming gazebo, two garden sheds, and a dedicated utility/composting area.

Further benefits include oil-fired central heating, double glazing, and PV solar panels, making this a comfortable and energy-conscious home both inside and out.
