Snape Bridge, Snape

A spacious three storey mews house set within The Courtyard. Kiln House is one of a small collection of town houses and apartments converted from part of the Snape Maltings. The properties have been carefully and thoughtfully integrated into the rest of the complex which includes a range of boutiques, a café, and the world famous Snape Maltings Concert Hall. Snape is a very popular village, partly because of the Concert Hall, but also because of its position relating to the popular seaside town of Aldeburgh, the fishing village of Orford, and the market town of Woodbridge. The River Alde flows through the centre of the village on which footpaths weave through the Suffolk Heritage Coast connecting nearby nature reserves, woodlands, and other local villages and towns. There are also three public houses in the village and the area abounds with woodland and riverside walks.
