The Lea, Walberswick

A delightful semi detached cottage with a large south facing garden and off road parking, located on a peaceful driveway a few paces from the village green. Walberswick stands on the south bank of the River Blyth, just across the water from Southwold. A ferry operates from Southwold in the summer, cutting short a seven mile journey by road. Formerly a prosperous fishing village, nearly half of the houses in Walberswick today are holiday homes. The village has a thriving artistic community with regular exhibitions, two excellent village pubs, tea rooms and village hall.

Council Tax Band: D

DESCRIPTION

Introducing this charming semi-detached period cottage complete with a large secluded south facing rear garden, situated in this idyllic location on a quiet private driveway off of Leverett's Lane, a few paces from the village green of this most sought after coastal village. The cottage with white washed elevations below a pantile covered roof, retains great charm and character, together with off road parking and it's large south facing lawned garden. Screened by a wealth of shrubs and trees it creates an idyllic setting all within a stones throw of the green, and just few minutes stroll to the harbour and beach off this charismatic sea side village. The accommodation with electric heating and partial double glazing comprises;
