The Street, Walberswick

An individual detached chalet with sea views from the first floor located in this most sought-after of coastal villages, just a 5 minute walk from the beach, village green and Southwold Harbour. Walberswick is a particularly popular coastal village situated south of the Blyth estuary forming part of the Suffolk Heritage Coast, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village has a general store, two excellent public houses and tearooms. To the north stands the renowned coastal town of Southwold which offers an excellent range of High Street and boutique shops. The surrounding area is renowned for its coastline, countryside and leisure pursuits, whilst also being home to the RSPB Reserve at Minsmere.

DESCRIPTION

A distinctive detached chalet dating from the mid 20th Century featuring white washed brick elevations below steep pitched pantile covered roofs with a large dormer window to the rear affording a fine view over the neighbouring countryside to the sea.

Set back from the road behind a hedgerow providing seclusion, a driveway offers parking & turning area and leads to an attached single garage. To the rear a secluded garden enjoys a southerly aspect with lawn bordered by a wealth of flowering plants and shrubs. Adjacent to the conservatory currently is a paved seating area ideal for alfresco dining and enjoying this fine location.

Internally the entrance hall leads to a sitting room overlooking the garden and with attractive brick fireplace incorporating log burner. Dining/ second reception room opens into a large conservatory currently used as a dining and seating areas, again overlooking and opening into the garden and linking via a lobby to a side entrance onto the driveway and the kitchen. A cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

Rising from the hallway the staircase leads to the landing with useful storage, two generously proportioned bedrooms and family bathroom. The principal bedroom has an ensuite shower room and a fine coastal view to savour.

In all a genuinely delightful cottage style with a fine view in this charming and highly desirable location in this lovely coastal village.
