Location

Huntsman House is a detached light and airy property and enjoys a wonderful rural position on the outskirts of the popular village of Parham. Having been recently improved and updated to include new windows throughout and décor.

Parham lies just two miles to the south of the historic and desirable market town of Framlingham, which offers excellent shopping facilities as well as schools in both the state and private sector. Wickham Market, about three miles to the south, offers further shopping facilities with a railway station at Campsea Ashe providing links through to Ipswich where there are direct trains through to London's Liverpool Street station. The County town of Ipswich lies about seventeen miles to the south.
