There is an attractive lawned frontage and even a space for storing a caravan or motorhome.

By the garage to the left hand side is gated access to the private rear garden which is mainly paved with a lawned area enclosed by a hedged boundary and outbuildings comprising of three stores with lighting and power ideal for storage or as a workshop. There is also potential to create a garden room too.

Location

Leeming lies a mile east of the current A1M road, south of the larger village of Leeming Bar and north of the small hamlet of Londonderry, also nearby is the RAF base of RAF Leeming. Leeming is also situated approximately 3 miles east from Bedale, which is a market town and civil parish in the district of Hambleton, North Yorkshire. Listed in the Domesday Book as part of Catterick wapentake, markets have been held in the town since 1251 and the regular Tuesday market still takes place today. The town has a range of schooling opportunities for children up to the age of 16 years and also boasts a leisure centre with a swimming pool and gym, a football club, golf club and being the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales, there are plenty of scenic walks and country pursuits close by too. Bedale has excellent road links including the new bypass, and Junction 51 of the A1M provides access to the national motorway network. Other transport links close by are the main line railway station in Northallerton, Teesside International Airport and Leeds Bradford airport are both within an hour's drive away.
