DESCRIPTION

This lovely character cottage is nestled away in a quiet position within the conveniently positioned village of Patrick Brompton, close to Bedale, Richmond, Leyburn and easily accessible from Junction 51 of the A1(M).

The property opens from the front into a porch, ideal for hanging coats and then opens straight into the sitting room. The sitting room has exposed wood beams and double glazed windows to the front and side. There is space for a dining table and chairs plus sofas and there is a cosy multi fuel stove set into an inglenook fireplace with a stone hearth and wood mantel over.

The kitchen is to the rear and has a stable door opening out to the path for access to the garden, store and little courtyard all at the rear. The kitchen itself comprises of a range of wall and base units with a work surface over having a tiled splashback, a circular single sink unit with a drainer, space for a washing machine, an integral fridge/freezer, electric oven and a four ring electric hob with an extractor hood over and a stainless steel splashback and there are the stairs leading up to the first floor.

To the first floor the landing opens to the two bedrooms and the bathroom. Bedroom one is to the front and is an excellent double bedroom with an exposed character beam. Bedroom two is a good single to the rear and has the built-in airing cupboard.

The house bathroom comprises of a panelled bath with a shower over and a screen, a low level WC and a washbasin plus a heated towel rail.

Outside there is a gravelled parking to the front of the property and to the rear, a path leads past a small courtyard area and the stone-built store (which has lighting and power points) to the enclosed garden. The garden has a pleasant outlook and has been designed for ease of maintenance with a decked seating area overlooking a mainly gravelled garden with shrub borders and enclosed by an attractive walled boundary.

Agents Note:

- The property currently does not have a council tax band rate as it has previously been used as a holiday let and therefore business rates applied.
