Arabin is a charming and beautifully presented black and white cottage, occupying a delightful position with open views across surrounding fields, in the highly sought-after and well-regarded village of Wormington.

Thoughtfully restored and sympathetically refurbished by the current owners, the cottage successfully combines period character with a light and spacious feel. Retaining a wealth of traditional features, the accommodation has been carefully enhanced to create a warm and inviting home of considerable charm. This exceptional property offers a rare opportunity to acquire a cottage of genuine character in such a desirable village setting and, as such, an internal viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate all that it has to offer.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming porch leading into a spacious dining hall, a living room featuring a striking double-sided log burner, and a conservatory with a tiled roof that offers a bright and airy space to relax and enjoy the garden views. The fully fitted kitchen is appointed with bespoke cabinetry and granite worktops, complemented by a practical utility room and a convenient WC.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms, two of which benefit from ensuite bathrooms and fitted wardrobes, alongside a well-appointed family bathroom, providing flexible and comfortable living for family and guests.

Outside, the property boasts a well-stocked garden mainly laid to lawn, offering a serene and private space. A large, secure patio area provides a safe environment for dogs or the perfect spot for outdoor entertaining. The driveway provides off-road parking for a couple of vehicles, adding convenience and practicality to this charming home.
