Land Off Birmingham Road

Badsey, WR11 7TD

Guide price £170,000

A rarely available parcel of permanent pastureland, currently used for equestrian grazing, together with a stable yard comprising six stables. The property is located on the outskirts of the Worcestershire village of Badsey. This appealing amenity holding extends to just under 10.5 acres and is divided by a brook into three distinct paddocks. The boundaries are defined by established mixed-species hedgerows and electric fencing.

There is a field shelter in one of the fields and mains water via a trough is available in this field.

There are 4 designated areas.

Access - The land is accessed via two rights of way, one to the south of the property off the Bretforton Road, and one to the north-east of the property off the Birmingham Road.

Rights Of Way - A footpath runs across the property, however there are no other known rights of way.

Services - It is understood that both water and electricity are available to connect to, however these have not been connected by the current Owner. Purchasers are advised to make their own enquiries.

Boundaries - The Purchaser shall be deemed to have a full knowledge of all boundaries, and neither the Vendor nor the Selling Agents will be responsible for defining the boundaries and ownership thereof.
