Each room benefits from an excellent sense of proportion and flow, creating a practical yet welcoming layout.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms. The third bedroom further benefits from a staircase rising to a converted attic room, adding valuable additional space. This upper-level room lends itself perfectly to use as a home office, hobby room, guest accommodation, or teenage retreat, enhancing the property's overall flexibility.

Positioned to the front, the house enjoys a delightful southerly aspect across open fields. This attractive outlook not only provides a picturesque rural backdrop but also allows sunlight to stream into the principal rooms throughout the day, creating a bright and uplifting interior environment.

Externally, the property includes the practical advantage of an en-bloc garage, offering secure parking or additional storage.
