We are thrilled to bring to the market this attractive period townhouse with history dating back to early 1800's, a real gem! The property has been well maintained and thoughtfully extended over time, creating a characterful home, with a blend of modern charm. It truly must be seen to be appreciated.

It is well positioned on the High Street providing easy access to local independent shops, cafes, restaurants and 2 supermarkets, all within walking distance.

The ground floor offers generous living accommodation, entrance door into the living room complete with open fire and an original bay window. Through to the separate dining room with stairs elevating to the first floor. On the ground floor you will also find a galley kitchen, through to an additional sitting room - perfect to read a book in the afternoon sun.

To the first floor, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms, bedroom 1 further boasts built in wardrobes - perfect for additional space. To complete this floor is the family bathroom complete with bath, stand alone shower, wc and basin and utility cupboard with space and plumbing for the washing machine. Up to the second floor where you will find 'bedroom 2', a spacious, light filled room.

Externally, there is a small courtyard patio with space for logs and a table & chairs, 2 outside stores and steps elevating to the wonderfully mature, established garden. Not only is the garden maintained to a beautiful standard but it further boasts a southerly aspect, a summer house and the privacy of not being overshadowed by neighbouring property. The garden is not accessible from the rear, so you have peace of mind with additional security.
