A three storey semi detached character property, built circa 1880, set in the popular village of Wyre Piddle, on the edge of the River Avon. This property would suit families, investors and as a freehold property it could also be used as a holiday let.

The property offers a new gas boiler with hive control alongside double glazed uPvc windows - complete with sash feature windows to the front.

The front door to the property leads to a small lobby with the door to the lounge and stairs to the first floor. The ground floor of the property has a welcoming lounge complete with open fire and wooden flooring, a sympathetically extended kitchen diner with bi-fold doors leading to the beautifully established, secure garden and a downstairs WC for convenience. The kitchen diner really is the heart of the home, a truly versatile space with sky light, fitted units with breakfast bar and feature circle window alongside space for dining table.

Stairs elevate to the first floor to two double bedrooms both boasting built in wardrobes, a shower room and a dressing area come office space with stairs elevating again to the second floor.

The second floor has a large attic/loft room with a freestanding slipper bath. The current owner utilises this space as a bedroom.

Outside there is a 33ft barn which is currently used for storage accessible from the rear garden, this space has been sectioned off to create a utility area with water, plumbing and electricity. In addition to this space the property is offered with a wooden summerhouse in the garden which is also complete with electricity - the perfect relaxation spot. There is also a patio area with fixed gazebo and an outdoor coal/log store. Both the rear garden & driveway are secured by wrought iron gates for both privacy and security.

The tandem driveway offers parking for 2 vehicles.
