A wonderfully presented 3 bedroom detached house set within the picturesque village of Birlingham, near Pershore, offered to the market chain free.

Upon arrival you will be welcomed by a beautifully established front garden, and sweeping driveway - complete with wooden gates for privacy. The garden wraps around the property offering a real 'countryside' treat. Entrance through to the spacious hallway, leading to the integral garage with light and power. Through from the hallway is the modern kitchen with a variety of fitted units & integral appliances. The dining room sits to the side of the kitchen, offering a useful space for hosting. In addition to the dining room, the property also boasts 2 further reception rooms. The main living room has bifold doors overlooking the front of the property and a log burner, the conservatory is also situated to the front and is flooded with natural light. To finish the ground floor is a useful downstairs cloakroom and understairs storage.

'U' shaped staircase elevating to the first floor where the 3 bedrooms and the family bathroom are located. Bedrooms 1 & 2 are both generous size doubles with built in wardrobes, and bedroom 3 is a single room again benefitting from built in wardrobes. Bedrooms 1 & 2 both offering far reaching views - the perfect spot to start the day! The family bathroom is offered with a 4 piece suite - a bath, basin, WC and galley style walk in shower.

Externally, the star of the show is the wonderfully established and manicured garden. Wrapping around the property it offers the perfect blend of privacy and views out to the countryside. The gardens are also accompanied by a pond, pergola, oversize workshop shed, raised beds and parking for multiple vehicles.

If a countryside retreat with an outstanding outlook, modern style living and a large amount of space to entertain is what you are looking for, then look no further.
