A truly stunning and elegant one-bedroom apartment, beautifully refurbished throughout while retaining many of its original features, creating a wonderful sense of character and homely charm.

Situated on Pound Street, on the edge of Newbury town centre, the property is ideally located within just a couple of minutes' walk of Newbury train station with regular direct services to London Paddington and the West Country. This spacious and generously proportioned apartment also benefits from access to a small, shared garden.

The communal entrance hallway leads into the apartment's internal hall. To the front of the property is a beautifully light and spacious lounge, featuring a large bay window, attractive panelled walls, built-in bookcases with useful storage beneath, and an elegant marble feature fireplace.

The hallway leads through to a newly fitted, stylish shower room and continues into a high-quality, modern kitchen. The kitchen benefits from integrated appliances, excellent storage, a useful breakfast bar and a window overlooking the gardens.

Further along the hallway, a short staircase leads down to a spacious double bedroom,
