Location

Burgh-on-Bain is a picturesque Lincolnshire Wolds village within the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. It offers an enviable rural setting with attractive views and easy footpath access.

Located down a quiet no-through road and private track, the property is ideally located between the market towns of Louth (8 miles east) and Market Rasen (9 miles west). There are also three Grammar schools including the highest rated Caistor Grammar School, within a 30 minute drive. As well as offering easy transport links to Lincoln.

Description

Dating from the Georgian era, this former water mill property is comprised of the main Farmhouse, the adjoining Mill House, the former Mill building itself and a range of adjoining and detached Outbuildings. The property is set within extensive grounds that include a picturesque lake and mature woodland.

The Farmhouse, while in need of renovation, boasts a wealth of character and history, providing a blank canvas for restoration. The range of outbuildings offer additional space for storage, workshops, or even the possibility of conversion into additional living accommodation, (subject to necessary planning permissions).

With ample scope for development and extension, this property presents an opportunity for those looking to create their dream residence in a peaceful rural, river side setting. The surrounding grounds provide a perfect backdrop for outdoor activities and relaxation, making it an ideal retreat from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.
