This charming two-bedroom semi-detached home in the sought-after Marina Gardens, NN5 is perfect for first-time buyers looking for a lovely property in a convenient location.

As you arrive, you are greeted by a tandem driveway with space for two cars. Step inside through the entrance hall, ideal for shoes and coats, and into the impressive 22ft open-plan lounge and kitchen/breakfast room. The kitchen is cleverly divided by a small island, creating a natural separation while keeping the space open and perfect for entertaining family and guests. A WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, there are two equal-sized double bedrooms, with the master benefitting from fitted wardrobe space. The family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation.

Externally, the property features both front and rear gardens, with the rear offering a patio area leading to a mainly lawned garden and a shed for additional storage.

Situated in a lovely area with excellent road links to Northampton Town and the M1, this home is an ideal purchase for first-time buyers.
