Tucked away on charming Holland Street, this beautiful townhouse offers an exceptional blend of contemporary living and classic London character. Behind its period facade, the property has been thoughtfully modernised, with a bespoke kitchen and stylish finishes that complement the property.

Extending to approximately 1,547 sqft, the house is arranged to provide excellent entertaining space with the entire ground floor flowing from one area to the next. A welcoming entrance area leads to a generous reception area with a feature fireplace and a large window with original shutters. There is also a projector and hide away screen allowing for a more informal reception area. Leading through to the bespoke kitchen with ample dining space, ideal for family life and hosting. There is also a guest WC and a utility room.

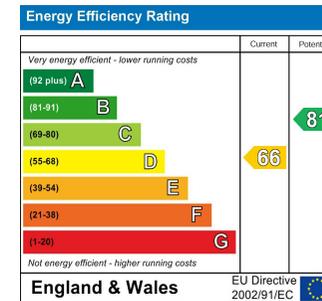

On the half landing is a study with the ability for two desks and storage. This leads on to the wonderful roof terrace with views over the other gardens in the area.
