

This charming three-bedroom semi-detached home beautifully blends period character with contemporary living with the added benefit of a GARAGE. Rich in original features, including exposed brickwork and timber beams, the property is further enhanced by a sunny, south-facing garden—ideal for both relaxation and entertaining. Situated just three miles from Chichester, the home enjoys easy access to an excellent selection of shops, restaurants, and a mainline rail service to London Victoria. Road connections are equally convenient, with the nearby A27 providing swift coastal links between Brighton and Southampton.
