3 Bedroom House - Semi-Detached located in Costessey

Nestled in the tranquil corner of Costessey's Queens Hills development, this exquisite Grade II listed Victorian farmhouse, originally built in 1840, offers a unique blend of historical charm and modern convenience. With its striking red brick façade and slate roofs, this property is a splendid example of architectural elegance, featuring gabled wings and decorative barge boards that enhance its character.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by an expansive kitchen diner that sets a warm and inviting tone for the home. The cosy sitting room, complete with an exposed brick chimney breast and a wood burner, provides the perfect space for family gatherings or quiet evenings. The utility room, which also serves as a convenient downstairs cloakroom, adds to the practicality of this delightful residence.

As you ascend to the first floor, natural light floods the space through a roof light, guiding you to three well-appointed bedrooms and a stunning family bathroom, all accessed via elegant oak doors. The property boasts a stunning bathroom, ensuring ample facilities for family living.

The outdoor space is equally impressive, featuring landscaped gardens that are not overlooked, making it an ideal setting for family life. The garden includes an outdoor kitchen area perfect for the summer ahead, a lawn, a Mediterranean space perfect for a hot tub, and further decking at the rear, providing a serene retreat for relaxation and entertainment.

Conveniently located just a mile from a retail park, local shops, and schools, as well as being in close proximity to the University of East Anglia and the hospital, this farmhouse offers excellent road access to the A47 and beyond.

This exceptional family home is a rare find, and viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate its charm and potential. Don't miss your chance to make this stunning property your own. Guide Price £300,000 - £325,000.
