Manningtree

Nestled in a desirable residential area, this charming three-bedroom semi-detached bungalow presents a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, and families alike. This home, well-maintained and presented in good condition throughout, is ready to welcome its new owners with open arms.

Step inside and be greeted by the welcoming entrance hallway that leads you into a world of comfort and ease. Each of the three generously sized bedrooms accommodates a double bed, ensuring a restful haven for all members of the household. The living room, with its inviting ambiance, is the perfect spot to unwind after a long day.

The heart of this home is undoubtedly the spacious kitchen dining room, which is situated at the rear of the property. It's an ideal space for whipping up delightful meals while entertaining guests or enjoying everyday family dinners.

The family bathroom is well-appointed, providing a functional and relaxing space for your daily routines.

Outside, the rear garden is a private, unoverlooked sanctuary, offering a peaceful retreat for outdoor activities or simply soaking up the sun. Additionally, the side garage and front driveway parking add practicality and convenience to this attractive package.
