Property Overview

Step inside this charming three-bedroom semi-detached home, perfect for first-time buyers and growing families seeking a delightful retreat in a serene locale. Boasting an elevated position with scenic views over a verdant greensward, this residence has been thoughtfully improved and extended to offer a warm and inviting living space.

Upon entering, the entrance hall greets you, leading to an airy living room that promises comfort and relaxation. The generous accommodations are complemented by the glow of natural light, thanks to the double glazing throughout, while gas central heating ensures a cosy atmosphere during cooler months. The well-appointed kitchen, which overlooks the rear of the property, offering a picturesque scene whilst you dine. Additionally, the conservatory extends your living space even further, providing a versatile area for entertainment or peaceful contemplation.

The first floor houses three well-proportioned bedrooms alongside a family bathroom.

Outside, the property doesn't fail to impress, with ample parking for three vehicles, a detached garage currently used as a storage room, and gated access to the rear garden.
