This stunning, detached family home on a popular development boasts stylish, contemporary interiors and is beautifully presented throughout.

The ground floor of this inviting home accommodates an entrance hall leading to a wonderful living room with bespoke wallpaper, window coverings, and a stunning media wall. Leading off the hall is a fabulous open-plan kitchen diner which is finished with tiled floors, silestone worktops, and integrated AEG appliances. The dining area has a bespoke cabinet and double patio doors leading out onto the south-facing garden. There's also a snug which could be used as either a playroom or home office and has been recently fitted with Hammonds fitted cupboards, and a WC.

This property has the added benefit of bespoke under stair storage, added by the vendors.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom boasts a fully tiled ensuite. There are three further bedrooms all offering bespoke fitted wardrobes providing lots of storage and a contemporary house bathroom.

Externally the home has a driveway providing off-street parking and a detached garage. To the rear is an Indian stone terrace and a landscaped south-facing garden.
