Situated on the bustling high street in the heart of Boston Spa, 270 High Street is an outstanding family home that perfectly captures the charm of village life. This Grade II period property boasts distinctive character features, thoughtfully blended with a modern twist. Its prime location allows residents to soak in the vibrant community spirit while also providing a tranquil escape at home. With a driveway and off-street parking. With an impressive 3,048Sqft.

This stunning period property, excellently located on the vibrant high street, oozes charm and character at every turn. With its exquisite details, this remarkable home offers a delightful haven that families will be proud to call their own.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a breathtaking hallway that radiates warmth and character.

The ground floor features a cosy snug/family room equipped with bespoke fitted storage. You'll also find a beautifully designed kitchen that offers a double oven and a charming dining space with stunning beams overhead. This floor is completed by a utility pantry and access to a workshop that holds great potential for conversion.

Moving to the first floor, you'll discover a drawing room with a captivating feature fireplace and a log burner, alongside sweeping views of the formal dining room, which is also impressive with its own fireplace. This level is thoughtfully designed with a separate toilet and a uniquely styled bathroom that is finished to a high standard.

On the second floor, the inviting layout showcases three spacious bedrooms along with a modern bathroom, featuring a separate walk-in rainfall shower, a bathtub, and dual sinks.

The third-floor suite is exceptional, featuring a large, bright bedroom with a welcoming en-suite, oak beam flooring, and charming French doors that enhance its appeal.

Externally, this home is complemented by a generously sized lawned garden at the front and side, with a lovely seating area surrounded by trees, shrubs, flowers, and plants. There's a parking space for two cars, a single garage, and additional garden and seating space at the rear.

Planning permission approved for a further two parking spaces and conversion of integral garage to a sun room
