MARYCOT OLD MILL LANE

- Charming 1800s character home
- Beautiful period features including fireplaces and exposed beams
- Three double bedrooms
- Stylish, modern bathroom
- Located in a desirable village setting
- Easy access to Wetherby, Leeds, and York
- Ideal for first-time buyers, professionals, or investors

Nestled in the heart of the charming village of Clifford, Marycot is a beautifully presented character property dating back to the 1800s. Arranged over three floors, this unique home blends period charm with tasteful modern touches, making it ideal for buyers seeking something with real personality.

The ground floor offers a welcoming living room featuring an electric fireplace, perfect for cosy evenings, alongside a well-appointed kitchen with traditional styling. Moving up to the first floor, the spacious primary bedroom benefits from a striking feature fireplace, while the contemporary house bathroom has been thoughtfully updated to offer modern convenience.

The top floor provides two generous double bedrooms, each showcasing original exposed beams that add a sense of warmth and heritage to the space. With its well-balanced layout and characterful finish throughout, Marycot is a rare find in this sought-after village location.

This fantastic home also includes a usable basement, adding to its many benefits.
