Step into History, Surrounded by Beauty – A Truly Exceptional Country Residence

Dating back to 1642, this magnificent Grade II* listed country home is steeped in history and bursting with character. Nestled within beautifully landscaped private gardens in the highly desirable hamlet just outside Rishworth, this remarkable property enjoys sweeping panoramic views of the stunning West Yorkshire countryside.

Upper Cockroft is not just a home – it's a lifestyle. With over 4,300 sqft of elegant living space and an additional 1,300 sqft of versatile outbuildings and garages, this property effortlessly blends modern comfort with spectacular period charm. Planning consent has already been granted to create a separate, eco-friendly two-bedroom residence – ideal for extended family, a guest house or a potential income opportunity.

Inside, this grand residence offers an abundance of spacious rooms, including four inviting reception rooms, a dedicated study, and a vast breakfast kitchen perfect for family gatherings. Every corner reveals exquisite original features: stone mullion windows, exposed timber beams, soaring roof trusses, and magnificent stone fireplaces that are simply showstopping.

Upstairs, you'll find five luxurious double bedrooms, two with stylish ensuite bathrooms, plus a modern family bathroom. The principal suite is a peaceful retreat, complete with fitted wardrobes and a sleek, contemporary ensuite.

And outside? The sunken terrace is a standout highlight – a dreamy setting for summer BBQs and evening gatherings under the stars.

A rare opportunity to own a piece of English heritage, with space to grow and room to breathe. Properties like this don't come along often.

ENVIRONS

Upper Cockroft is accessed via a shared (no-through) lane used by 5 properties (including Upper Cockroft). Upper Cockroft is believed to have been built the Holroyd family and occupied the Bottomley family, both of whom were clothiers. The Holroys were renowned property owners in the area. Situated in the picturesque Pennine valley of Calderdale, Rishworth is surrounded by history and beauty. In fact, the local area is frequently used for filming, such is the beauty and awe of the Yorkshire landscape. Less than a 10 minute drive away is the town of Sowerby Bridge which hosts many amenities and a train station. Equidistant is the M62, which connects well to both Manchester and Leeds within 30 minutes. Equally convenient is Littleborough train station with direct routes to Manchester and Halifax train station with routes to both Manchester and direct to London.
