28, Emville Avenue Leeds, LS17 8BB

A substantial five-bedroom detached residence with the potential for an additional bedroom, occupying an enviable private position within a quiet cul-de-sac setting, offering versatile accommodation with multiple reception rooms, generous gardens, ample off-street parking and a detached garage.

The property has undergone partial renovation and is offered for sale as seen, presenting an ideal opportunity for purchasers seeking a forever home with the flexibility to further modernise, extend or adapt to individual lifestyle requirements.

Externally, the property enjoys a private rear garden benefiting from all-day sun, creating an excellent space for family living and entertaining, whilst the substantial plot further enhances the overall appeal of the home.

In addition to the existing accommodation, the site benefits from active planning permissions for substantial extension and enhancement works to the current dwelling, a full knock-down and rebuild scheme, or the construction of three new detached homes, creating an exceptional opportunity for both owner-occupiers and developers alike.
