67, Old Park Road Leeds, LS8 1JB

Upon entering this impressive early-1900s, stone-built detached residence, you are immediately struck by the scale, character, and sense of privacy the home offers. Extending to over 4,000 sq ft of versatile living space, the ground floor showcases a series of beautifully proportioned reception rooms, all flowing seamlessly from a central hallway. A generous lounge, an elegant living room featuring a classic bay window, and a formal dining room create exceptional spaces for both everyday family life and larger gatherings. The kitchen/breakfast room is equally well proportioned, offering ample space for meal preparation and informal dining while maintaining a strong connection to the heart of the home. All rooms are bathed in natural light, with large windows enhancing the sense of space and providing a bright, airy atmosphere throughout the day.

The first floor continues to impress with four well-sized double bedrooms, two of which are particularly spacious, along with two bathrooms. This level is thoughtfully arranged to balance privacy and practicality, making it ideal for growing families.

The second floor features a spacious landing flooded with natural light, providing access to three additional bedrooms and a bathroom, including an en suite on the top floor and a useful airing room with ample storage. The generous proportions on this level offer flexibility to create your own layout, whether for guest accommodation, home offices, hobbies, or leisure spaces.

The substantial basement further enhances the home's versatility, presenting space for a utility area, extensive storage, a potential home gym, or bespoke lifestyle space, allowing a new owner to personalise the property to their requirements. All with functioning radiators in all except the toolroom.

Externally, the property enjoys a generous garden, garage to the rear with ample off street parking and outside w/c for convenience. Surrounded by mature trees and established greenery, providing a high degree of privacy and tranquillity. Situated on a quiet road within a peaceful cul-de-sac, corner plot the home benefits from minimal passing traffic and a serene, family-friendly setting while remaining conveniently located for Roundhay's excellent amenities, schools, and green spaces. Both front and back gardens are facing East/south/west and benefit from all day sun.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial, characterful family home in the heart of Roundhay—offering period charm, abundant natural light, complete privacy, and exceptional space, all within one of Leeds' most desirable and sought-after addresses.
