Property Details

Halesden Road, Stockport,

Situated in one of the most sought-after pockets of Heaton Chapel, this charming three bedroom detached home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial family property in a prime residential setting. Offering spacious accommodation arranged over two floors, the property has been lovingly maintained and provides the perfect canvas for a buyer looking to modernise and create a forever home tailored to their own taste and style.

Set behind a generous frontage with driveway parking and garage, the home enjoys gardens to three sides, offering excellent outdoor space for families, entertaining or future landscaping potential. Internally, the property offers well-proportioned living accommodation throughout, with a traditional layout that lends itself beautifully to modern family living.

While requiring updating, the property is full of character and potential, making it an exciting opportunity in a location where homes of this nature are rarely available.

Perfectly positioned close to highly regarded local schools, excellent transport links and a wealth of amenities in Heaton Chapel and neighbouring villages, this is a fabulous family home in an outstanding location.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the space, setting and potential on offer.
