Directions

From central Summertown drive south towards the city centre and on leaving Summertown you will arrive at traffic lights and crossroads where you turn left in Marston Ferry Road. You will see Scholar Mews on your right behind the treescape and you take the first private gated driveway on your right and there is an intercom where you can enter the requisite property number. The apartment building is the red brick centre section of the development, with the main entrance door to the main foyer to the rear of this building.
