Set in what is essentially a quiet country village lane in the popular well served Wheatley on the edge of internationally renowned Oxford, This substantial detached house offers very versatile accommodation with well proportioned rooms throughout, arranged over three floors. At the heart of which is a sophisticated 'social' kitchen space opening on to private gardens, 3 reception rooms of considerable proportions, laundry, The first floor offers 4 bedrooms including a master suite with a well appointed en-suite facility. All 4 bath / shower rooms are of high quality, There are 5 double bedrooms overall. The lower ground floor could be used as an annexe / for multi generational living but otherwise it provides substantial entertaining space and high quality guest accommodation. Outside there are private 0.22 acre gardens with an expansive driveway access, formal lawned areas and terraces all of which offers absolute privacy. Double garage.
