Set within the renowned Lillington Gardens Estate, this well-arranged three-storey apartment extends to approximately 899 sq ft and benefits from a private patio garden.

Designed by Darbourne & Darke and built in the late 1960s to early 1970s, Lillington Gardens is a celebrated development known for its striking red-brick architecture, landscaped walkways and strong sense of community, with elements of the estate now listed.

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged over three floors, with a bright open-plan reception room and kitchen on the ground level opening directly onto the private patio, ideal for entertaining or relaxing. The first floor comprises a spacious principal bedroom and modern bathroom, while the top floor offers two further bedrooms and a shower room, providing flexibility for family living or home working.

Priory House is quietly positioned on Rampayne Street, moments from Pimlico Underground Station, with Victoria, Westminster and the River Thames all within easy reach.

A rare opportunity to acquire a home with private outdoor space in one of central London's most architecturally significant developments.
