Cambridge Road, London

This beautifully refurbished residence offers an inviting living environment with two generously sized bedrooms, ideal for a small family or professionals seeking space and comfort.

Upon entry, elegant herringbone flooring and a light-filled ambiance welcome you. The spacious reception room, with high ceilings, original cornicing, and a feature fireplace, is perfect for relaxation or entertaining. The bespoke kitchen, designed with culinary enthusiasts in mind, maximises space and light while providing ample storage. Both bedrooms feature large sash windows and extensive built-in wardrobes, while the modern bathroom includes underfloor heating and a walk-in shower.

Cambridge Mansions enjoys a coveted position in the Battersea Park Conservation Area, known for its red-brick mansion blocks and proximity to Battersea Park, less than 100 meters away. This prime location blends tranquility with convenience, offering easy access to local shops, cafes, and restaurants, alongside excellent transport links to central London.

The area is renowned for lifestyle and leisure options, with Battersea Park providing a haven of green space featuring a boating lake, tennis courts, a children's zoo, and scenic riverside paths. Nearby, the Battersea Power Station development offers a mix of luxury retail, dining, and cultural venues, with Chelsea and Clapham adding further appeal with their boutiques, restaurants, and cultural attractions. Excellent schools are also close by, making this location ideal for families.

Residents enjoy access to a secure communal garden at the rear, offering a private outdoor retreat. This property provides a superb blend of modern elegance, historic charm, and an unparalleled location near one of London's most beloved parks, ensuring an exceptional lifestyle for its residents.
