Lewisham Street, Westminster

A rare and highly characterful freehold townhouse, quietly tucked away on Lewisham Street in the historic heart of Westminster.

Arranged over five floors and extending to approximately 1,414 sq ft, the house offers flexible and well planned accommodation with a layout suited to entertaining, home working and everyday living. The lower ground floor provides a generous kitchen and dining room, with a separate utility area adding further practicality, while the first floor is given over to an impressive drawing room extending to over 24 ft in length.

The bedroom accommodation is arranged across the ground, second and third floors, with two principal double bedrooms and a further bedroom or study on the top floor. This allows the house to work as either a two or three bedroom home, depending on requirements. There are two and a half bathrooms.

A particular feature is the generous roof terrace, offering unusually large private outside space for such a central Westminster location.

Lewisham Street is one of Westminster's more discreet and atmospheric addresses, positioned close to St James's Park, Storey's Gate and the wider government quarter. Its name is linked to the Legge family, Earls of Dartmouth, whose local connections are also reflected in nearby Dartmouth Street.

St James's Park, Westminster and Victoria stations are all within easy reach, along with the shops, restaurants, cafés and amenities of Westminster, St James's, Victoria and Pimlico.
