Summary Description

Jorgensen Turner Estate Agents are thrilled to introduce to the market this beautiful Victorian conversion apartment nestled amidst the historical tapestry of Shepherd's Bush. This one-bedroom apartment spans 400sqft and is accompanied by its seamless blend of contemporary design and classic architectural elements.

The heart of this beautiful property is a gorgeous reception area, bathed in natural light through expansive windows, featuring natural wood flooring and bespoke shelving, making it an idyllic setting for both entertaining guests in the evening, as well as peaceful evenings in. The kitchen, a testament of modern efficiency, boasts built-in appliances set against sleek white cabinetry, reflecting the home's overarching theme of refined sleekness.

A notable highlight is the apartment's direct outlook onto Cathnor Park, offering a lush green backdrop that contrasts beautifully with the urban environment. This unique feature ensures you can enjoy your own slice of peacefulness, right in the heart of the city.

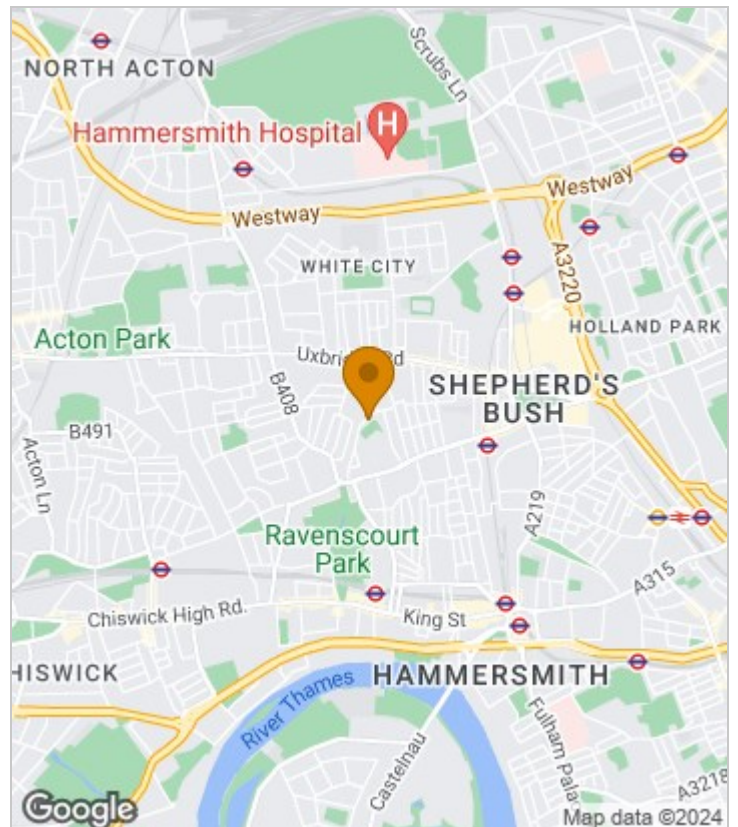

Situated on Goodwin Road, this apartment is moments away from Shepherd's Bush's dynamic array of amenities and superb transport links. This recently renovated property is offered with flexible furnishing options, providing the perfect canvas for personal expression, and is ready to welcome residents seeking a lifestyle marked by comfort and connectivity.

Available for immediate occupancy, this apartment represents an unparalleled opportunity to live in one of London's most desirable neighbourhoods, capturing the very best of chic urban living.

Council Tax Band C—Hammersmith & Fulham.
