Traditional Three Bedroom Semi-Detached House in Bryncethin

Situated in the popular area of Bryncethin, this traditional three-bedroom semi-detached home offers well-proportioned accommodation, including an entrance hall, lounge and an open-plan kitchen/diner, ideal for everyday living and entertaining.

Externally, the property boasts a landscaped, enclosed rear garden, providing an attractive outdoor space to enjoy, along with a garage. There is off-road parking to the front.

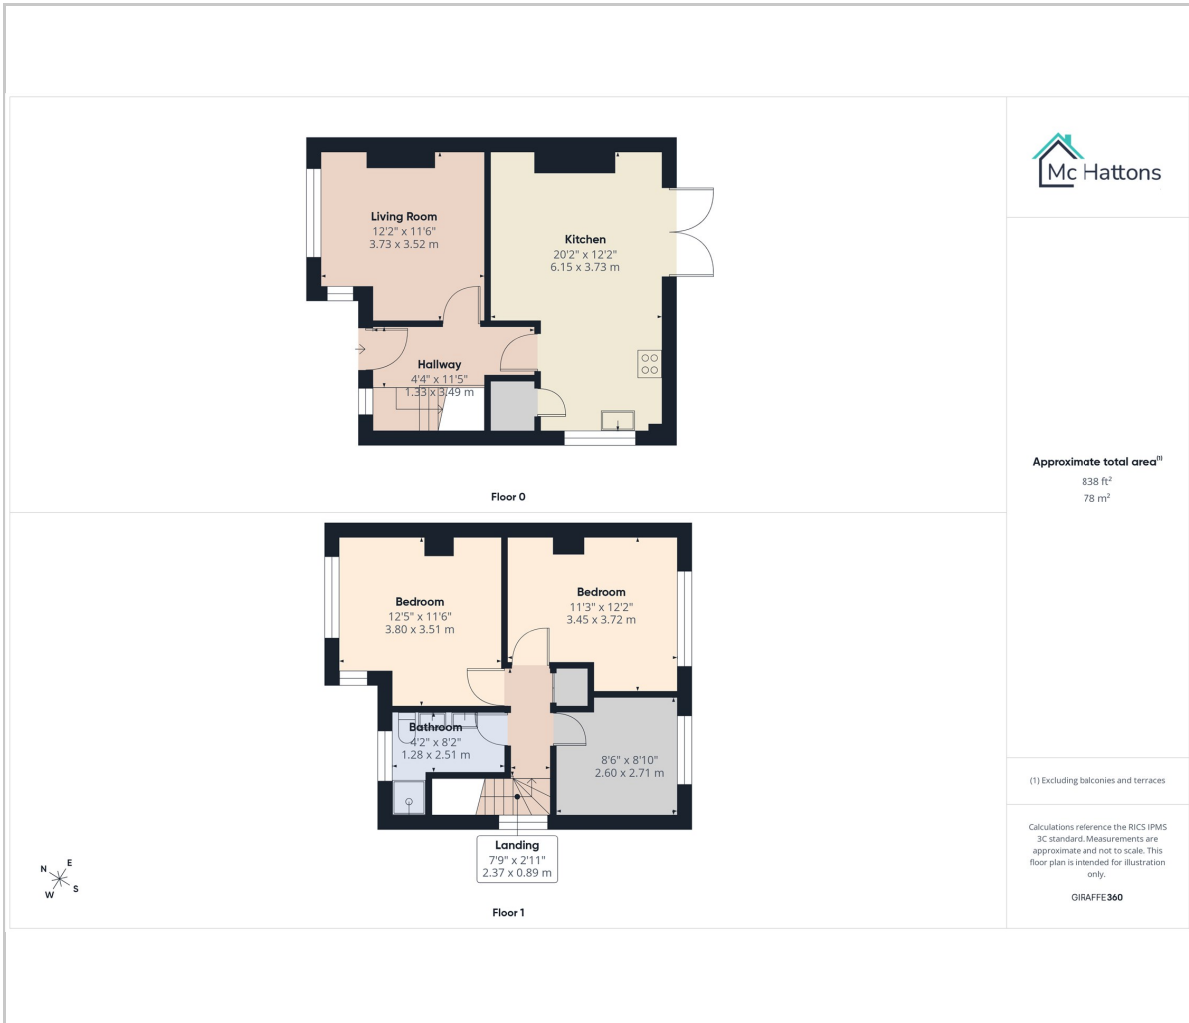

Conveniently located for commuters, the property offers easy access to the M4 motorway at Junction 36, Princess of Wales Hospital and McArthurGlen Designer Outlet. Bridgend town centre is approximately also within close proximity, providing a wider range of shopping and leisure facilities, together with a mainline railway station.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the accommodation, outdoor space and convenient location on offer.
