Property Description

Situated within minutes' walk from Finchley Central Tube Station and ideally positioned within the catchment area for Akiva and places of worship is this well-presented three double bedroom, three bathroom (two en-suite) ground floor apartment. The property has been recently refurbished and benefits from an approx. 15'2 ft reception room, character features including high ceilings and a fireplace, direct access onto the garden via the kitchen and an inner lobby area accessing the third bedroom and family bathroom. One of the standout features of this flat is its close proximity to places of worship. With its contemporary design and desirable location, the property offers an excellent opportunity to embrace comfortable and stylish living in Finchley, London. To really appreciate the size, location and condition an internal viewing is highly recommended via vendors sole agent.
