Property Description

Nestled between East Finchley and Highgate, and conveniently close to both East Finchley and Highgate Stations (Northern Line), is this beautifully presented, semi-detached bay fronted Edwardian family home. The property benefits from approx. 2500sqf of internal space and features three bright reception rooms filled with natural light, a contemporary kitchen with generous storage leading into a utility area, a guest WC, and a cellar. The rear garden is accessible from both receptions, ideal for entertaining or family living. The first floor boasts three well-sized double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with a larger than average four-piece en-suite bathroom. Furthermore, a family bathroom and ample storage complete this level. The top floor reveals a fourth double bedroom with access to a private balcony, a shower room, built-in wardrobes, and stairs leading to additional space within the bedroom. Other notable features include off-street parking for up to three cars, original sash windows, and being perfectly positioned within walking distance of Cherry Tree Wood, Highgate Wood, Kenwood, and highly regarded schools including The Archer Academy and Tetherdown Primary School. This home combines period charm with contemporary comfort and to appreciate the location, size and condition, an internal viewing is highly recommended through the vendors sole agents, Adam Hayes Estate Agents.
