Property Description

Situated on this quiet tree-lined road just off North Finchley's High Road and within easy reach of a variety of local shops, transport links and outstanding schools is this charming three bedroom Edwardian terraced family home. The property is filled with character features including high ceilings, a number of fireplaces and an original front door, and further boasts an approx. 15ft bright reception room with a bay window, a stunning modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances and direct access onto a well-maintained rear garden, perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The first floor comprises three generously sized bedrooms, a contemporary three-piece family bathroom and an additional WC. Other notable features include ample storage throughout, and the potential to create further living accommodation with a loft conversion (STPP). This attractive home is ideally suited for families looking to establish themselves in a sought-after residential road close to excellent amenities and transport connections. To fully appreciate the size, finish, and location, an internal viewing is highly recommended via the vendors' sole agent Adam Hayes Estate Agents.
