Property Description

Situated in this quiet residential turning off Woodberry Grove and within easy reach of West Finchley Underground Station (Northern Line) and Ballards Lane's shops and amenities is this well-presented four bedroom semi-detached family home. The property benefits from a front reception room, a spacious kitchen/diner with doors opening onto a large and secluded rear garden, a guest WC, and off-street parking. Arranged over two floors, the home offers well-proportioned accommodation throughout, with further potential to extend into the loft (STPP).

Ideally located for highly regarded schools including Moss Hall Primary and several secondary schools, this residence provides an excellent opportunity for families seeking a characterful home in a desirable location. To really appreciate the size, potential, and setting, an internal viewing is highly recommended via the vendors' main agent Adam Hayes Estate Agents.
