

33 NORFOLK ROAD BRIGHTON, BN1 3AB

£1,000,000
FREEHOLD

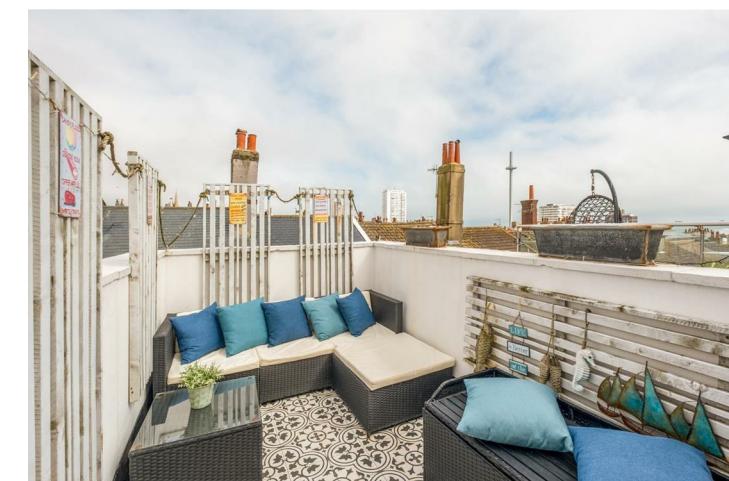

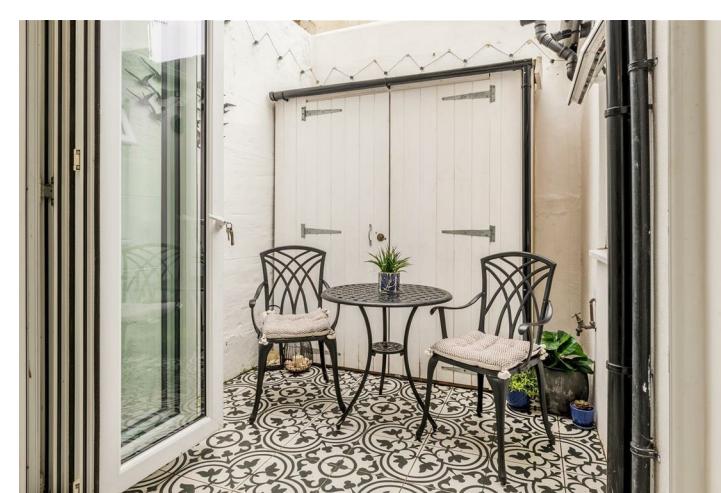

Guide Price £1,000,000 - £1,100,000. A rare opportunity to buy this simply stunning 4 bedroom, 2 bath, Late Regency House in Brighton's highly sought after Montpelier and Clifton Hill conservation area. A gorgeous family home arranged over four floors with roof terrace and courtyard, in a central city location.

Set in a quiet road this striking, family-sized period home has been sympathetically extended and decorated throughout. It's high ceilings and wide bay windows melding easily with stylish luxury bathrooms and a striking extended kitchen/diner. The plantation shutters, sash bay windows with classic cast iron rails just to mention a few, all add to this beautiful example of contemporary living in a period property.

The star of the show has to be the the pièce de résistance on the top floor which is the second outdoor terrace the property boasts. Accessed through double doors, this pretty enclosed roof terrace fitted with Victorian porcelain floor tiles and slatted, whitewashed wood panels enjoys fantastic views to the sea and the i360.

A property that has to be viewed to be fully appreciated.
